TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- General
1. All auction catalogues are provided free with no obligation to bid.
 2. Placing a bid is acceptance of the following terms and conditions.
 3. All auctions are governed by applicable UK Legislation.
 4. In the event of a bidding dispute or bidder error the auctioneers' decision is final.
 5. The auctioneer reserves the right to withdraw any lots at any time before the auction starts. In the rare occasion that this happens all bidders will be notified of lot withdrawal and the reason.
 6. All bids are confidential and under no circumstances are bids disclosed to third parties.
 7. Previous auction lot realisation prices are available free upon request.
- Bidding
8. Bids are accepted by post, email, telephone or online and must arrive before 10:00am on the day of the auction. Unfortunately, bids arriving after this time cannot be entered into the auction.
 9. All bids must be in GBP £sterling. Bids in other currencies are respectfully declined.
 10. To bid by post enter the lot number and the maximum amount you are prepared to pay for each lot you are interested in on the postal bid form and return it to the address shown
 11. To bid by email send your bids with lot number and contact details to the email address shown. Do not email your payment details.
 12. If you are the highest bidder you will win the lot for the bid step above the next highest bidder. This may be below your highest bid.
 13. If there is a tie in bid amounts the earliest date on the bid entry will win the lot.
 14. Bid on as many lots as you want. If the bid form is full please use a separate sheet and attach it to the original.
 15. Bids with pence or bids out of a bid step will be rounded down to the nearest lower bid step.
 16. Bids below the reserve price are respectfully declined.
 17. All descriptions are provided in good faith by the auctioneer with errors and omissions accepted that will be corrected when identified.
 18. Catalogue values are in £GBP referencing the SG Stamps of the World catalogue unless otherwise stated.
